

As much as I would like to use a cell phone ON OCCASION while on an airplane, I fear that over usage would be a problem. Unfortunately planes are very cramped and uncomfortable now, adding the capability for obnoxious, shouting (to be heard over the whine of the engines) cell phone users would lead to "air travel rage". Please do not allow the use of cell phones on airplanes. If you must then please segment the planes to talking / non-talking areas.